

DISCLAIMER FOR THE PRELIMINARY JURY SCHEDULE:

IMPORTANT: This is the preliminary jury schedule. You can find your name quickly by using Control/F (Find) and type in either your first name or surname (not both). Changes may take place on a daily basis as students report their jury conflicts (exams, accompanist's schedule, etc.) so please check regularly, between now and the time that the final jury schedule is posted in case your jury time has been moved.

Colour coding:

Yellow: this jury must not be moved.

Green: jury time has been changed since the schedule was first posted

IMPORTANT! You will have two weeks to report any scheduling conflicts with your jury involving either yourself or your accompanist. During this two week period following the posting of the Preliminary Jury Schedule, the Performance Office staff will resolve any reported conflicts. Note the day and time of your jury, then check your final exam schedule. If your jury conflicts with an exam, or your accompanist is scheduled for two juries that occur at the same time, please report this immediately to Catherine Fraser, mepsdept@uwo.ca, in TC210. Accompanists are expected to keep these dates free in order to meet the commitment to the student. The MPS Office staff cannot work around accompanists' other commitments other than juries. As this is a final examination, your jury will only be rescheduled for these two reasons. Any other reason will require special permission from the Chair of the Music Performance Studies Department.

Students: it is your responsibility to inform your accompanist IMMEDIATELY of the date and time of your jury, then one of you (consult with your accompanist and decide which of you will do this) must inform the Music Performance Studies Office within the designated two-week time period if the accompanist has a conflict with the jury time. The accompanist might prefer to do the reporting if he or she has several conflicts to report at once.

ALL CONFLICTS TO BE SOLVED BY THE PERFORMANCE OFFICE MUST BE REPORTED NO LATER THAN WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7.

Once this deadline has passed, the only way that a student can change their jury time due to an exam or accompanist conflict is to find another student to switch with, making sure that neither of you end up on a jury being marked by your teacher.

IF YOU HAVE TO SWITCH JURY TIMES WITH ANOTHER STUDENT, YOU MUST REPORT THE SWITCH TO THE PERFORMANCE OFFICE NO LATER THAN WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21.

No further switches or changes will be permitted after November 21. Make sure your accompanist is aware of this!

Don't forget to hand in your Jury Repertoire Form to your teacher by November 15. These are available from your teacher. If any student's Jury Repertoire Form is found to be missing when Jury Week begins, that student will be assigned an "Incomplete" for their final applied music mark until the form, signed by the studio teacher, has been submitted to the Music Performance Studies Office.
