MEETINGS: Composition lessons will be held in TC-339, at mutually agreed times.

DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES
The 9518 course consists mostly of one-on-one consultations focusing on the participants’ demonstrated in-progress and completed compositions; any related in-progress and completed assignments and exercises; and discussions and analyses of selected contemporary music repertory. Students will complete at least two compositions, one of which will be of significant proportions.

From time to time there may be group classes instead of private lessons. These group classes will be announced at least a week in advance.

Prerequisite: N/A

Learning Outcomes: As they produce and complete their new musical compositions, students will develop their creative abilities to achieve sophisticated understanding, skill, and qualifications related to music composition, theory, analysis, and history; and will demonstrate adept and diverse musical competence and expression in organization/form and notation/presentation.

Students are expected to participate in the Annual Chamber Groups-Composer Collaborative on 27 March 2019, 7:30 pm VKH. This is an interdepartmental collaborative event between MPS and MRS that has been in place for over 16 years. Chamber groups are not finalized until near the end of September. Composer assignments are prioritized by course number (high to low) and grades and other meritorious factors. Decisions are made by a committee of MPS and MRC faculty organizers. Guidelines will be distributed separately.

EVALUATION:
The final grade is comprised of 90% for original compositions (including exercises or other assignments in composition, if any), and 10% for participation/attendance. The grade portion for composition will be based on the quality of the student’s composition(s) taking into account musicality, originality, and creative thinking; as well as the handling of technical skills. Students must earn a minimum of 63/90 for the composition component of the final grade to pass the course. Students must attend a minimum of 80% of one-on-one consultations to pass the course. There are no examinations.
Composition Projects and Deadlines

Composition 1: Song for baritone and piano
Duration: 4-5 minutes
Deadline for completed score: September 29, 2018

Composition 2: details and deadline TBA

Other composition assignments and related academic work: details and deadlines TBA

TEXTBOOK:
There is no textbook for this course. Students will be asked as needed to bring score and audio materials for discussion. Supplementary reading and listening, if any, is usually available in the Music Library or through the Library’s online services, through Interlibrary Loans, or through other online resources.

Relevant Reference Books:

Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enrol in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Audio/video recording of course lectures or individual meetings is not permitted.

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, as found at:
http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf
Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar). Composers sometimes deliberately quote other composers in an obvious manner. Pastiche and parody are acknowledged as legitimate compositional techniques, although copyright restrictions take precedence over artistry.

Accommodation for Medical Illness: Students are directed to the Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness found under “Rights and Responsibilities” at: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/academic_policies/index.html

The University has a policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness which states that “in order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing 10% or more of the student’s overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities. Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the appropriate Dean’s office...” (In Music, this means the Associate Dean, Graduate Studies in Music).

For Music 9518, project deadlines are firm when given. Dates are necessarily tentative at the outset of the course. For medical illness of work worth less than 10% of the total course grade, medical documentation for such accommodation will be required if a project deadline is missed, or if weekly composition work is unavoidably late by more than 1 day or if work is habitually late. When documentation is required for either medical or non-medical academic accommodation, then such documentation must be submitted by the student in confidence directly to the office of the Associate Dean of Graduate Studies in Music and not to the instructor. It will be the Associate Dean’s office that will determine if accommodation is warranted.

Students who are distressed emotionally/mentally should refer to Mental Health@Western http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/ for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.
