

Western University's Don Wright Faculty of Music presents a new one-week choral conducting workshop

CHORAL MUSIC EDUCATION SUMMER SESSION: EXPLORATIONS IN GESTURE, SOUND AND PEDAGOGY

August 26-30, 2017

Western University, London, Canada

Western's Don Wright Faculty of Music is pleased to offer a 5-day intensive course, designed for choral music educators of all levels of experience. School, community and church choir directors along with those currently engaged in the formal study of choral conducting will benefit from the guidance and support of conductors Lydia Adams, Gloria Gassi, and Jennifer Moir, as well as Lightner Method founder, Babette Lightner, as they move through the course content.

Visit the website for complete information and online registration

www.music.uwo.ca/outreach/choral-conducting-workshop.html

Lydia Adams

Conductor -
Western University
Singers

Gloria Gassi

Conductor -
St. Cecilia Singers

Jennifer Moir

Conductor - Les Choristes and Chorale

Babette Lightner

Founder, The
Lightner Method