COURSE DESCRIPTION

Designed to help pianists develop their technique and artistry as well as their knowledge of the solo repertoire for piano. A holistic approach to the art of piano playing is offered that combines elements of eastern philosophies, with special emphasis on the fine balance between the physical, emotional, mental and spiritual aspects of the performer.

GRADING

Grades are based more on progress in class than on exam performance:

- attendance to weekly lesson and master class
- quality and quantity of work covered
- progress shown throughout the semester
- student's playing relative to the requirements of the level
- preparation for lessons, class recital, and lessons

MUS1920, 2920, 2921, 3920, 3922, 4920:

Jury Mark 25%, Performance Class 10%, Studio Instructor 65% (32.5% for each term)

Grading scale for all aspects of the course is A+=90-100%, A=80-89%, B=70-79%, C=60-69%, D=50-59%, F=0-49%.

ADDENDUM

*Due to the current situation related to the Covid-19 pandemic, delivery of lessons will be based in observance of the protocols put in place by Western University and the Don Wright Faculty of Music. Lessons will be delivered in-person, however, in the event of a COVID-19 resurgence during the course that necessitates the course delivery moving away from face-to-face interaction, all remaining course content will be delivered entirely online. Should the delivery of lessons and masterclass change to a hybrid or fully online format, in general, in-person lessons and online lessons will alternate on a weekly basis. The time of your lesson will remain consistent throughout the year, and the instructor (myself) will determine the lesson format.

Please read carefully the expected behaviours on campus and during lessons below:

In-person lessons:

- a. Students are expected to wear triple layer non-medical masks at all times in the classroom as per Western policy and public health directives. Students who are unable to wear a mask for medical or religious reasons must seek formal accommodation through Accessible Education at aeu@uwo.ca. Students unwilling to wear a mask as stipulated by Western policy and public health directives will be referred to the Department, and such actions will be considered a violation of the student Code of Conduct.”
- b. Students are expected not to eat or drink while in class to ensure masks stay in place. Students will be able to eat and drink outside of the classroom during scheduled breaks.
- c. Maintaining physical distance of at least six feet from other individuals. Practicing good personal hygiene by covering coughs and sneezes, staying home if sick, and

UWO Policy Statements:

Course Pre-requisites: It is the student's responsibility to ensure they have met all requirements of course pre-requisites. University policy states:

Unless you have either the requisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Accommodation for Medical Illness: Students are responsible for making up any missed classes or assignments as soon as possible. In order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing more than 30% of the student's overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation in the form of a completed and appropriately signed Student Medical Certificate (SMC) indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities, or the equivalent documentation for non-medical or compassionate grounds.

Students seeking academic consideration must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by either the self-reported absence or SMC, or immediately upon their return following a documented absence, to clarify how they will be expected to fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence. Documentation, if required, shall be submitted to the Office of the Associate Dean, Undergraduate (TC210).

Note that the new Self-Reporting Absence Portal may not be used for requesting academic relief for work worth more than 30%, or for Final Exams scheduled during the official examination period. Students are directed to read the full Senate policy on accommodation for medical illness at the following website: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/Academic_Consideration_for_absences.pdf

https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf

In cases where students miss work that is worth 30% or less of the total course grade due to medical illness or compassionate grounds, if an online absence report is submitted using the new Self-Reporting Absence Portal, or if documentation is voluntarily submitted to the Associate Dean's office and the Associate Dean deems that accommodation is warranted, then the missed assignment(s) or quiz(ze)s may be discounted in the calculation of the final grade for the course. If documentation is not submitted voluntarily then the missed assignment(s) or quiz(ze)s will receive a grade of zero.

Academic Integrity: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea, or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence (see Scholastic Offence Policy in the Western Academic Calendar). All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Special Needs: If you have special needs due to a physical, psychological or learning disability, and need course materials in alternative formats or other considerations, please contact the office Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) in the Student Development Centre. For more information, please see the following link: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/appeals/accommodation_disabilities.pdf.

Examinations & Attendance: Any student who, in the opinion of the instructor, is absent too frequently from class or laboratory periods in any course will be reported to the Dean of the Faculty offering the course (after due warning has been given). On the recommendation of the department concerned, and with the permission of the Dean of that Faculty, the student will be debarred from taking the regular examination in the course. The Dean of the Faculty offering the course will communicate that decision to the Dean of the Faculty of registration.
