Course Description

Experience in the chamber orchestra helps to prepare students for careers as performers and teachers. Students have the opportunity to develop rehearsal, performance and ensemble skills, as well as leadership abilities, while rehearsing and preparing operatic repertoire. Repertoire is varied and challenging, requiring individual preparation between rehearsals. Throughout the course of the academic year, the orchestra will perform Rossini's La cenerentola. Placement in this ensemble is based on a combination of students' technical, musical abilities and a perceived positive, hard-working attitude. Participants are expected to audition and placements are decided by a panel of experts comprising staff and faculty of the Western University music department.

Learning Outcomes

- Students will develop musical literacy and technical skills on their instrument at a high level of proficiency.
- Students will be able to collaborate in order to create and present musically artistic events, combining individual knowledge, skills, and values with a collegial and flexible mindset.
- Students will cultivate the abilities of effective time management; task prioritization is demonstrated by maintaining a practice regimen.
- Students will perform with artistic excellence, communicating emotional and musical meaning.
- Students will develop their artistic personality and potential through informed interpretation of practical, historical, and theoretical concepts in their performances.
- Students should be able to demonstrate musical independence through self-remediation in performance.

- Students should develop the confidence to know what to add, what to ignore, and what to enhance in a musical performance.
- Students will develop focus and efficiency in problem solving through critical listening and self-reflexivity during practice time.
- Students should be able to demonstrate professionalism through performance, pedagogy, and personal initiative.

Course Prerequisites

Admission to the ensembles is based on audition, and granted at the discretion of the conductor and the audition committee. Admitted students enrolled in course number corresponding to their year of study, as well as the production to which they've been assigned (Fall or Winter). Those students who enroll in the course stand to receive an ensemble performance credit. As this credit is required for students in the Music Faculty, preference will be given to admitting music students to the orchestra prior to non-music students.

Unless you have either the prerequisites for this course or written special permission from your Dean to enroll in it, you may be removed from this course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisites.

Rehearsals

Attendance is mandatory throughout the year for all scheduled orchestra sessions, including regular rehearsals with Professor Luti, dress rehearsals, performances, and breakout sessions with the GTA teaching team (See below). Orchestra rehearsals are not like other classes or labs, but rather like a professional service. Individual practice is expected outside of regular rehearsals.

The chamber orchestra rehearses on a condensed timeline relative to other university ensembles. The first rehearsals of each production will be conducted without singers. These orchestra-only rehearsals will be followed by the "sitzprobe" rehearsals the weekend before the production goes up, in which the cast sings through their parts without staging. In the week leading up to the performances, the cast and orchestra will rehearse together in Paul Davenport Theatre. Please refer to the attached schedule (at the end of the course outline) for specific dates and times of rehearsals and performances for the fall and winter productions. Students who have a pre-existing conflict with any of the dates in the attached schedule should advise the instructor (Prof. Simone Luti) and GTAs as soon as possible.

Important: While every effort will be made to adhere to the rehearsal schedule, please be aware that changes may occur depending upon the progress of the ensemble. Changes to the rehearsal schedule will be announced at the end of rehearsal and/or communicated via email and OWL. Please check your emails regularly.

Required Materials

- Metronome
- Tuner
- Pencils with eraser
- Music Stand
- Music (NOTE: Digital copies of scores and parts will be distributed online using OWL, or alternately via emailed PDFs. Students are expected to print copies of their parts prior to the first rehearsal. Portable tablet reading devices may also be used, provided the student has the conductor's permission, a paper copy of the music is on hand, and the use of a tablet does not inhibit the sightlines of other players in the orchestra.)

Preparation

You need to have your music and a pencil at every session. Participants are expected to learn their parts prior to any group rehearsal so that rehearsal time can be spent as productively as possible. Listening to the works being played while viewing a full score is highly valuable and recommended.

While it is understood that this is a student ensemble, a professional attitude and approach is expected.

Music Folders

Your music can be picked up from the Choral / Band / Orchestral (CBO) Collection, located on the main floor of Talbot College (T.C. 134). Folders will be available before your first rehearsal, unless otherwise instructed by your ensemble director.

You are responsible for the music signed out to you. Use pencil marks only and please avoid damaging your music to prevent potential fees. Please erase all unnecessary markings on your parts/copies before you return them to the library.

If, at any time, you need to switch parts with someone, please email or visit us in the Music Library, so that we can reassign the part(s) to the appropriate account.

You can return music to the CBO or the Music Library (T.C. 234) by the appropriate due date, as indicated on your folder. If you are finished with your music and wish to return it at an earlier date, please do so.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at muscbo@uwo.ca.

Online Learning Resources

For the duration of the 2022-2023 academic year the chamber orchestra teaching team will be maintaining OWL Project Sites to coordinate communications, distribute music, enable file-sharing, as well as provide access to VoiceThread and other resources related to virtual learning. All members of the orchestra will be given access to the chamber orchestra OWL project sites via their individual OWL accounts.

All players will have received an email notification about being granted access to the project site for the production in which they're involved – please notify a member of the teaching team if you did not receive this notification email. To access the project site, simply go to the OWL login page (<https://owl.uwo.ca/portal>) and type in your Western ID and password, and then go to the Sites portal (The “Sites” icon looks like a waffle-iron in the upper-right-hand corner of the interface). In the Sites portal, you should see the opera production listed under the Projects heading – click on the link to be taken to the chamber orchestra project site.

As in the past, email will be the primary means by which the teaching team communicates with the orchestras. Please ensure that you are checking your UWO email regularly for updates and announcements. These communications will also be posted to the OWL Project Sites. If you prefer to receive messages at a non-UWO email address, it is your responsibility to arrange that with the teaching team. If you are not receiving communications from the teaching team, please notify us immediately at your next in-person/virtual session so that we may remedy the situation.

Academic Consideration for Student Absence & Missing Work (≥10%): Students are responsible for making up any missed classes or assignments as soon as possible. The University recognizes that a student's ability to meet their academic responsibilities may, on occasion, be impaired by medical illness. Illness may be acute (short term), or it may be chronic (long term), or chronic with acute episodes. Academic Consideration provides students with consistent, fair, and pedagogically appropriate consideration, without compromising the academic integrity of the course or program, when they have been unable to complete some component of a course due to short-term extenuating circumstances. Students who have long-term or chronic medical conditions (physical or mental) that may impede their ability to complete academic responsibilities are directed to seek Academic Accommodation through Accessible Education (Academic Accommodation for Students with Disabilities).

Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible and no later than 48 hours after the end of the period of absence covered, to the Academic Counselling unit or Office of the Associate Dean, Undergraduate (TC210), of the student's Home Faculty together with a request for relief specifying the nature of the academic consideration being requested. Students are directed to read the Senate Policy on Academic Consideration for Medical Illness at the following website for further details regarding various requirements and procedures for the supporting documentation:

Whenever possible, students who require academic consideration should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, examinations, etc. Students must follow up with their professors and their Academic Counselling office in a timely manner.

Academic Consideration for Missing Work (<10%): In cases where students miss work that is worth less than 10% of the total course grade due to medical illness or compassionate grounds, please refer to the paragraph above, Learning Objectives. Students who have been denied accommodation by an instructor may appeal this decision to the Associate Dean's office but will be required to present appropriate documentation.

Academic Offences: Submission of work with which you have received help from someone else (other than the course instructor or TA) is an example of plagiarism, which is considered a major academic offence. Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, as found at:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

Mental Health & Wellness: Students that are in emotional/mental distress should refer to the Health and Wellness at Western page (<https://www.uwo.ca/health/>) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help or to go to the Wellness Education Centre located in Thames Hall room 2170. Students in crisis in need of immediate care are directed to go directly to Student Health Services in Thames Hall 2170 or to click on the big green “I Need Help Now” button on the Health and Wellness page above.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities: Students work with Accessible Education which provides recommendations for accommodation based on medical documentation or psychological and cognitive testing. The accommodation policy can be found here: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/Academic%20Accommodation_disabilities.pdf

Religious Accommodation: Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays (other than statutory holidays), and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance. The Diversity Calendar from the Canadian Centre for Diversity and Inclusion provides information on multifaith, multicultural and diversity related holidays and observances and links to resources for more information. <https://www.edi.uwo.ca/resources/2816-2023-Diversity-Calendar-PDF.pdf>

Contingency Plan: Although the intent is for this course to be delivered in-person, should any university-declared emergency require some or all of the course to be delivered online, either synchronously (i.e., at the times indicated in the timetable) or asynchronously (e.g., posted on OWL for students to view at their convenience), the course will adapt accordingly. The grading scheme will not change. Any assessments affected will be conducted online as determined by the course instructor.

Gender-Based and Sexual Violence: Western is committed to reducing incidents of gender-based and sexual violence and providing compassionate support to anyone who has gone through these traumatic events. If you have experienced sexual or gender-based violence, either recently or in the past, you will find information about support services for survivors, including emergency contacts at https://www.uwo.ca/health/student_support/survivor_support/get-help.html. To connect with a case manager or set up an appointment, please contact support@uwo.ca or call 519 661-3568.

Electronic Devices in Classrooms: The in-class use of electronic devices (other than for instructor-approved in-class uses) is expressly prohibited. Students found guilty of disrupting the class with electronic devices will be asked to leave the class and may be subject to disciplinary measures under the Code of Student Conduct.
