Memorandum
There are things to do everyday:
   To wash yourself, to play,
   To set the table for lunch.
There are things to do at night:
   To close our eyes, to sleep,
   To have dreams to dream,
   To have ears to hear.
There are things to never do:
   Neither at day, nor at night,
   Neither at sea, nor on land.
   The war, for example.

by Gianni Rodari (English translation by Simone Luti)
