Hymnen an die Nacht

Novalis (1772-1801)

Over all people, vast widespread tribes,
ruled in ancient times an iron fate,
with silent force.

A dark heavy chain
lay around the fearful souls.

Infinite was the earth, the dwelling place
and home of the Gods;

Rich in treasures and wondrous splendours.

Since eternity stood their mysterious abode
above the blue mountains of morning.
In the holy womb of the ocean lived the sun,
the living blazing light.

Music changes lives. So do our donors.
