Course Content:

This course is designed to familiarize singers and pianists with a critical overview of the art song repertoire through the development of an informed system of analysis, listening, presentation and performance. The course will entail an ongoing combination of listening, analysis and performance of assigned repertoire. As participation in class is a vital component of the course, ATTENDANCE IS MANDATORY and will be reflected in the final grade (Virtual or Face to Face)

As MEMORIZATION of the repertoire (singers only) indicates the time spent in preparation of the assigned repertoire, it shall also be reflected in the final grade as outlined below.

Course Prerequisites:

This course is designed for 4th year performance majors in voice and piano as well as MMUS in Voice, Piano Solo and Collaborative Piano. Other students may register with permission of the Department Chair and instructor, subject to availability.

Course Objectives:

Students can expect to:

1. Increase their understanding of the Art Song repertoire.
2. Develop an awareness of ensemble issues inherent between singer and pianist in the Art Song genre.
3. Learn to address and identify issues of performance and performance practice through the analysis of in class performance.
4. Develop their ability to reflect on their work and the work of their peers through accompanied reflections in class and outside of class.

Course Materials:

Supplemental materials, scores, assignments, and announcements will be available on the Owl course page (<http://owl.uwo.ca/portal>). Be sure to check the course page regularly for updates. In addition, curated audio files will be available on Owl for listening to excerpts of compositions studied in this class.

Course Requirements:

1. Students are expected to complete their performance assignments.
Repertoire will be assigned to the singers and pianists for the duration of the entire semester as well as emailed to the entire class and posted on course OWL
2. Students are required and encouraged to prepare a presentation on the assigned repertoire. The presentation should include the following information:
 - a. Composer information (brief biography/interesting facts)
 - b. Poet information (brief biography/interesting facts)
 - c. Information on the cycle or group of songs
 - d. Various Editions if available
 - e. Insightful highlights for both piano and vocal part
 - f. Information on various recordings available for the assigned Art Song

The presentations are to be presented as introductions before the performance of the assigned Art Song, and must be submitted to the course TA for posting on OWL no later than the Friday prior to the assigned performance day.

3. Students are required to review all presentations ahead of class and are expected to engage in conversations with those performing on the topics discussed in the written submissions

The class will be delivered in hybrid format, both virtually and face-to-face . When online instruction sessions are necessary, Zoom information will be sent out by the TA. The students are encouraged and required to familiarise themselves with some basic audio recording editing software.

Methods of Evaluation & Grade Breakdown:

See course schedule at the end of this syllabus for a weekly class schedule including assignment due dates.

Grade Breakdown:

Class Performance (All performed repertoire is to be memorized by the singers) 80%

The presentation for both pianists and singers includes the written submission, the presentation, and the performance.

In Class Participation 20%

Notes for UG students:

- i) Grading scale for all aspects of the course is A+=90-100%, A=80-89%, B=70-79%, C=60-69%, D=50-59%, F=0-49%.
- ii) Academic Consideration for Student Absence: Students will have up to two (2) opportunities during the regular academic year to use an on-line portal to self-report an absence during the term, provided the following conditions are met: the absence is no more than 48 hours in duration, and the assessment for which consideration is being sought is worth 30% or less of the student's final grade. Students are expected to contact their instructors within 24 hours of the end of the period of the self-reported absence, unless noted on the syllabus. Students are not able to use the self-reporting option in the following circumstances:
 - a. for exams scheduled by the Office of the Registrar (e.g., December and April exams)
 - b. absence of a duration greater than 48 hours,
 - c. assessments worth more than 30% of the student's final grade,
 - d. if a student has already used the self-reporting portal twice during the academic year

If the conditions for a Self-Reported Absence are not met, students will need to provide a Student Medical Certificate if the absence is medical, or provide appropriate documentation if there are compassionate grounds for the absence in question. Students are encouraged to contact their Faculty academic counselling office to obtain more information about the relevant documentation.

Students should also note that individual instructors are not permitted to receive documentation directly from a student, whether in support of an application for consideration on medical grounds, or for other reasons. All documentation required for absences that are not covered by the Self-Reported Absence Policy must be submitted to the Academic Counselling office. For the Western University policy on Consideration for Student Absence, see:

https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/Academic_Consideration_for_absences.pdf and for the Student Medical Certificate (SMC), see:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf

- iii) Academic Consideration for Missing Work: In cases where students are unable to submit work due to medical illness or compassionate grounds, if an online self-reported absence is submitted, or if appropriate supporting documentation is submitted to the Associate Dean's office, and the accommodation is granted, then the missed assessments may be rescheduled or discounted in the calculation of the final grade for the course, at the discretion of the instructor. If neither a self-reported absence nor an appropriate supporting document is submitted to the appropriate office, then the missed assignments will receive a grade of zero.

iv) Mental Health & Wellness:

Students that are in emotional/mental distress should refer to the Health and Wellness at Western page (<https://www.uwo.ca/health/>) for a complete list of options about how to obtain help or to go to the Wellness Education Centre located in UCC room 76. Students in crisis in need of immediate care are directed to go directly to Student Health Services in UC11 or to click on the green "I Need Help Now" button on the Health and Wellness page above.

v) Religious Accommodation:

Students should consult the University's list of recognized religious holidays, and should give reasonable notice in writing, prior to the holiday, to the Instructor and an Academic Counsellor if their course requirements will be affected by a religious observance.

Additional information is given in the Western Multicultural Calendar.

<http://multiculturalcalendar.com/ecal/index.php?s=c-univwo>

vi) Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

If you require academic accommodations because of a disability, please let the instructor know during the first week of classes, and, if you have not done so already, register as soon as possible with Accessible Education (formerly known as Services for Students with Disabilities). You can learn more about the Student Success Centre's services for accessible education at <http://success.uwo.ca/academics/sas/index.html>.

vii) Academic Offences:

Submission of work with which you have received help from someone else (other than the course instructor or TA) is an example of plagiarism, which is considered a major academic offence. Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, as found at:

http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

viii) Recording of Online Activities:

All the remote learning sessions for this course will be recorded. The data captured during these recordings may include your image, voice recordings, chat logs and personal identifiers (name displayed on the screen). The recordings will be used for educational purposes related to this course, including evaluations. The recordings may be disclosed to other individuals participating in the course for their private or group study purposes. Please contact the instructor if you have any concerns related to session recordings. Participants in this course are not permitted to record the sessions, except where recording is an approved accommodation, or the participant has the prior written permission of the instructor.

ix) Contingency Plan:

In the event of a COVID-19 resurgence during the course that necessitates the course delivery moving away from face-to-face interaction, all remaining course content will be delivered entirely online, either synchronously (i.e., at the times indicated in the timetable) or asynchronously (e.g., posted on OWL for students to view at their convenience). The grading scheme will not change. Any remaining assessments will also be conducted online at the discretion of the course instructor.

x) Online Etiquette:

Some components of this course may involve synchronous online interactions. To ensure the best experience for both you and your classmates, please honour the following rules of etiquette:

- Use your computer and/or laptop if possible (as opposed to a cell phone or tablet)
- “Arrive” to class on time
- Ensure that you are in a private location to protect the confidentiality of discussions in the event that a class discussion deals with sensitive or personal material
- To minimize background noise, kindly mute your microphone for the entire class until you are invited to speak, unless directed otherwise
- Unless invited by your instructor, do not share your screen in the meeting
- Be prepared to turn your video camera off at the instructor’s request if the internet connection becomes unstable

The course instructor will act as moderator for the class and will deal with any questions from participants.

To participate please consider the following:

- If you wish to speak, select the blue “raise hand” function and wait for the instructor to acknowledge you before beginning your comment or question.
- Kindly remember to unmute your microphone and turn on your video camera before speaking.
- Self-identify when speaking.
- Kindly remember to select the “raise hand” function again to lower your hand, mute your mic and turn off your video camera after speaking (unless directed otherwise).

General considerations of “netiquette”:

- Keep in mind the different cultural and linguistic backgrounds of the students in the course.
- Be courteous toward the instructor, your colleagues, and authors whose work you are discussing.
- Be respectful of the diversity of viewpoints that you will encounter in the class and in your readings. The exchange of diverse ideas and opinions is part of the scholarly environment.

Note that disruptive behaviour of any type during online classes, including inappropriate use of the chat function, is unacceptable. Students found guilty of “Zoom-bombing” a class, or of other serious online offenses, may be subject to disciplinary measures under the Code of Student Conduct.

Notes for Graduate Students:

i) Grading scale for all aspects of the course

A 80 – 100% B 70 – 79% C 60 – 69% F 00 – 59%

ii) Statement on Accommodation for Medical Illness

The Graduate Program in Music recognizes that a student's ability to meet his/her academic responsibilities may, on occasion, be impaired by physical or mental illness. Illness may be acute (short term), or it may be chronic (long term), or chronic with acute episodes. The Graduate Program in Music further recognizes that physical or mental illness situations are deeply personal, and respects the need for privacy and confidentiality in these matters. In order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities.

Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the office of the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies), not to the course instructor.

Students with special learning needs or other circumstances are asked to inform the instructor as soon as possible so that necessary accommodations can be considered.

iii) Statement on Academic Offences

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic offence, as found at https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_grad.pdf

iv) Statement on Health and Wellness

As part of a successful graduate student experience at Western, we encourage students to make their health and wellness a priority. Western provides several on-campus health-related services to help students achieve optimum health and engage in healthy living while pursuing a graduate degree. Students seeking help regarding mental health concerns are advised to speak to someone in whom they feel comfortable confiding, such as a faculty supervisor, a program advisor, or the Associate Dean (Graduate Studies). Campus mental health resources may be found at http://www.health.uwo.ca/mental_health/resources.html
