COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Capstone Project provides an opportunity for students to engage in high-level inquiry focusing on an area of specialization within the profession. Capstone projects will be inquiry and practice-centered and will draw upon areas of interest to the student and focus from the program such as philosophy, sociology, policy, research, principles of pedagogy, curriculum design, or technology, among others. All capstones aim to bridge theory and practice and are aimed to have an impact on the professional life of students.

The aim of the course is to facilitate the development of your Capstone Projects. Students are encouraged to apply and expend knowledge gained on teaching and learning throughout the Master of Music Education program as part of this process.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The Capstone Project should demonstrate the depth and extent of knowledge of students. Capstone projects may take a variety of formats (e.g., video, web, traditional text, media) of scholarly work.

During this course, students will:

- Investigate and evaluate prominent literature connected to your CP;
- Develop an outline for thinking and practice that illuminates and brings insight to an area of the music education field;
- Develop and create practical resources for music education settings.
- Present a clearly articulated investigative framework, while situating projects within established academic practices and/ or ideas;
- Offer inquiry-based argumentation for educational/curricular change and adaptation where conceptual propositions are tied to in-the-world realities.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Readings

Texts will be available via dropbox. They will be an assortment of collected materials, providing a wide-range view of capstone structures, conceptualizations and standpoints.

Additional materials will be provided as required by the instructor.
CLASS TIMES

Week 1/Jan 3  – Class Meetings All Students
Framing the Capstone – Theory/Practice and Inquiry-Based Learning

Week 2/Jan 10  – Class Meetings All Students
Analyzing Project Structure – Choices, Process, Aims, Outcomes

Week 3/Jan 17  – Class Meetings All Students
Research parameters – Parameters for the Project

Week 4/Jan 24  – Individual Work

Week 5/Jan 31  – Individual Work

Week 6/Feb 7  – Individual Work

Week 7/Feb 14  – Class Meetings All Students
Taking Stock – Challenges, Pitfalls, and Getting to Final Stages

Week 8/Feb 21  – Winter Break

Week 9/Feb 28  – Individual Work

Week 10/Mar 7  – Individual Work

Week 11/Mar 14  – Class Meetings All Students
Reviewing Together – Presentations and Feedback

Week 12/Mar 21  – Individual Work/Class Meeting (as needed)

Week 13/Mar 28  – Final Presentations

Individual meetings will be set up on a needs-basis in conjunction with developing work.

ASSIGNMENTS:

All materials and assignments are to be delivered through OWL. Each student will create a dropbox file in OWL and that file should be internally organized by each person. Drafts of assignments will be placed in the individual dropbox.

An email to me (or to all, depending on the assignment) should accompany a dropbox posting.

There will be five assessed elements of the course:

Capstone Proposal Outline

Assignment 1: develop a two to three-page detailed outline of your capstone:

1) Introduction – Explains the interest in the topic and situates the project in a scholarly and/or practical context.

2) Goals and Process – Describes the goals and purpose of the project. The section will detail the activities that will take place during the project, including who will be involved, and the role the student will play.

3) Final Product and Timeframe – Outlines the timeline for the project. This section will also detail the final format of the project and how it will be presented.

Drafts Assignments 2

I would like to see one draft of the Capstone Project. See due dates in the table above. Drafts should follow the outline of the final capstone detailed below

Assignments 4 and 5 - Final Capstone and Presentation

A condition of the capstone project is that students demonstrate the ability to gather materials, review current literature, and to examine sufficient background material to inform the development of original work.

To this end, the capstone projects should be thought of as in two parts:

1) A narrative-focused conceptual segment that describes and reflects upon the information gathering process, as well as a literature review sufficient to provide a scholarly contextualization of the topic.
   a. Length will vary but a good expectation for this section would be 15 to 20 pages (5000 to 7500 words, double line spaced); inclusive of references.

2) A practice-oriented segment (curriculum) where original and collected materials will be presented in response to your identified topic.
   a. Multimedia and web-based formats are highly encouraged in this segment of the capstone.
   b. Materials should be ‘sharable’ and aimed at impacting an area of work within music education

A public presentation of the final project will be delivered in the last week of classes.
EVALUATION

Assignments will be evaluated according to the degree to which your work meets the following criteria:

- Evidence of application of clearly articulated investigative framework to inform the capstone project
- Offer of an inquiry-based argumentation for educational/curricular change and adaptation relating theory to practice.
- Synthesis and evaluation of a relevant body of literature to contextualize the topic
- Development of appropriate and relevant practical resources for identified music education settings.
- Ability to organize and illustrate project in oral and media presentation
- Ability to convey clear conceptualization of project and answer questions in public presentation.
- Accurate use of English
- Accurate use of APA referencing

COURSE POLICIES:

Attendance Policy

Your punctual attendance and in-class participation are expected and vital to the academic success of all learners. We expect that you will notify me in advance should you need to miss a class. Given the seminar (low numbers) nature of this class, absence create significant disruption to the class structure. Please plan ahead so that absences are avoided.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES:

The following websites may be useful to you in obtaining support during your studies:

Office of the Registrar
This site provides you with information on things like course enrollment, student finances, and student records, as well as the latest updates from Student Central: http://www.registrar.uwo.ca/

Services for Students with Disabilities

“Western is committed to achieving barrier-free accessibility for all its members, including graduate students. As part of this commitment, Western provides a variety of services devoted to promoting, advocating, and accommodating persons with disabilities in their respective graduate program.

“Graduate students with disabilities (for example, chronic illnesses, mental health conditions, mobility impairments) are strongly encouraged to register with Accessible Education Western (AEW), a confidential service designed to support graduate and undergraduate students through their academic program.
With the appropriate documentation, the student will work with both AEW and their graduate programs (normally their Graduate Chair and/or Course instructor) to ensure that appropriate academic accommodations to program requirements are arranged. These accommodations include individual counselling, alternative formatted literature, accessible campus transportation, learning strategy instruction, writing exams and assistive technology instruction.”

Support Services

“Students that are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/ for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.”

Any student looking to book an appointment with a physician, a counsellor, psychologist, psychiatrist, in search of group care options, or any other service provided through Student Health Services and Psychological Services must book an initial appointment in Student Health Services, UCC 11 (Lower Level of the University Community Centre).

Crisis supports will continue to be offered in both Student Health Services (UCC 11) and Psychological Services (WSSB 4100) during operating hours. Please call 911 if your safety, or the safety of others is a concern. Additional crisis supports can be found here.

Students can book an appointment with Student Health Services or Psychological Services in-person in UCC 11 (Monday-Friday 9:00a.m.-4:00p.m.), or by telephone at 519-661-3030.

If you require any further clarification, please email health@uwo.ca.

ACCOMMODATION FOR MEDICAL ILLNESS
The Policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness can be found at www.studentservices.uwo.ca/secure/index.cfm. The University has a new policy on Accommodation for Medical Illness, www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/appeals/medical.pdf, which states that “in order to ensure fairness and consistency for all students, academic accommodation for work representing 10% or more of the student’s overall grade in the course shall be granted only in those cases where there is documentation indicating that the student was seriously affected by illness and could not reasonably be expected to meet his/her academic responsibilities. Documentation shall be submitted, as soon as possible, to the appropriate Dean’s office.”

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism: Complete assignments independently. Submission of work with which you have received help from someone else (other than the course instructor or TA) is an example of plagiarism. Plagiarism is a major academic offence. Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following website: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf
