Eligibility

Candidates must be full-time registered students in the DWFOM for 2026-2027; currently registered in applied music; and intend to be registered students during 2027-2028. DMA students are not eligible. This competition is open to all instruments.

Selection Process and Repertoire

The Concerto Competition consists of a preliminary round and a final round. Music should be selected from the concerto repertoire, i.e. solo instrument and orchestra, or solo voice and orchestra. Repertoire should be selected in consultation with the applied studio professor and the Symphony Orchestra director. Candidates must contact the Symphony Orchestra director via email to confirm that their repertoire selection is approved before submitting their online application. Failure to consult the Symphony Orchestra director on the proposed repertoire may result in a change of repertoire for the winner(s) at the time of performance.

1. Preliminary Round

Students must complete the online application and submit it no later than January 4, 2027, at 12 pm. The Academic Departments & Student Services Office (TC 210) is available to assist students throughout the process. The divisional requirements for the preliminary round are as follows:

Voice and Piano – Video Recording

Dates have been reserved in von Kuster Hall for voice and piano applicants to book a recording time for their preliminary round (at no cost for the applicant). Time slots are available on a first come first serve basis. A link will be emailed to access an online booking system for these recording sessions. The deadline to sign up for a recording session is November 9, 2026, at 12 pm.

Recording Session Dates:

November 10, 2026 (12:00-3:00 pm)

November 12, 2026 (12:00-3:00 pm)

November 17, 2026 (2:00-5:00 pm)

Applicants can arrange to produce their own recordings in a different venue using their own equipment. It is strongly recommended that applicants take advantage of the opportunity to use the professional equipment and venue offered in von Kuster Hall on the above dates.

From the recordings the jurors will select a maximum of four (4) students, from each of the four divisions, who will advance to the final round.

Strings, Woodwinds/Brass/Percussion – Live Audition

The preliminary round for strings, woodwinds, brass and percussion will consist of a live audition.

Live auditions will take place January 6, 2027.

A link will be emailed to access an online booking system for these auditions. Bookings will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. The deadline for signing up for an audition is January 4, 2027 at 12pm.

2. Final Round

The Final Round will take place on Saturday, January 9, 2027, at 12 p.m. in von Kuster Hall. Each finalist will play no longer than 10 minutes of their choice from their selected work. The jurors for the Final Round will be the MPS Department Chair and four external judges.

Winners' Information

The winners of the Western University Maritsa Brookes Concerto Competition 2026-2027 will be announced in the days following the final round.
